

TRAINING CALENDAR 2022

WOMEN AND THE LAW

Practical Legal Essentials to support your client

INTERVENTION ORDERS

31 AUG & 1 SEPT 9:30am - 1:30pm

ONLINE

$200+bf

BOOK NOW

Do you work with clients who have an Intervention Order or may need to apply for one? Family Violence Intervention Orders (FVIOs) are an important legal response to family violence. Our training will help you understand the legal process of Intervention Orders, including what happens if the order is breached and how they interact with other court orders.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- Practitioners in family violence services
- Practitioners in community and health services

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN?

- The process of an Intervention Order matter through the Court system
- Supports – legal and otherwise – which may assist your client
- What happens if your client (or the other party) wants to change or revoke the Intervention Order?
- The process when there is a breach of the Intervention Order, including advocacy tips when reporting breaches to police
- How the interaction between Intervention Orders and other family law matters work

WHAT DO OTHER PARTICIPANTS SAY?

- "I have better clarity on how to support clients with Intervention Orders and what to expect"
- "I have more confidence understanding the interconnection with family violence and the family court"
- "The greatest strength of the training was the knowledge of the trainers and a thorough and in-depth explanation of legal and court processes for Intervention Orders"

CHILD PROTECTION

12 & 13 OCTOBER 9:30AM – 1:30PM

ONLINE

$200+bf

BOOK NOW

If your client is involved with child protection, it is essential to have an understanding of how child protection intersects with other legal matters. This training will empower you to provide accurate and timely legal information on child protection to your client, including your client's rights and responsibilities.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- Practitioners in family violence services
- Practitioners in community and health services

*This training is co-facilitated with an experienced child protection lawyer

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN?

- An overview of the Australian legal system
- How a child protection matter moves through the court, and how to assist and advocate for your client at each stage of the process
- What the law says about removal of children and best interests of the child
- Practical tips on working together with lawyers, child protection workers and the courts
- Understanding how your client's child protection matter intersects with other legal issues

MIGRATION

8 & 9 NOVEMBER 9:30AM – 1:30PM

ONLINE

$200+bf

BOOK NOW

This training is designed to provide you with a greater understanding of the complexities faced by women experiencing family violence while also navigating the migration process. It will provide practical tips around how to support these women and navigate the legal system.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- Practitioners in family violence services
- Practitioners in community and health services

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN?

- An overview of the Australian legal system
- How a migration matter progresses and how to assist and advocate for your client at each stage
- Understand the barriers faced by women on temporary visas experiencing family violence
- Identify urgent migration and visa legal issues in family violence matters
- Understand the family violence provisions and how they apply
- Understand how your client's migration matter intersects with other legal issues